WELCOME TO CHURCH

Whoever you are, and wherever you find yourself in your journey of faith, you will find a place at our table at St. Hilda's Anglican Church. Come as you are. There are many ways and there is no one particular way to be a part of this vibrant community. Join us today with an open mind, and be prepared to discover a home for your spirit that is inclusive, incarnational, and joyful.

WHO WE ARE

St. Hilda's, situated on the unceded traditional territory of the shíshálh First Nation, is a member of the Anglican Church of Canada and the worldwide Anglican Communion. As a community, we welcome and celebrate human diversity - including spirituality, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, and abilities. We aim to create a space where people of any faith or none can question and discover the sacred in life through openness, struggle, laughter and prayer, lived out through a common commitment to be in solidarity with the poor and marginalized, and to cherish Creation.

CHILDREN

Children play a central part when we gather to worship. During the summer we welcome them to worship with us and join us in communion. Grape juice is available for children who are communing. A Quiet Room is available for parents with babies and toddlers at the back of the Church.

HOLY COMMUNION

ALL are welcome to come forward and receive communion, the divine life of Jesus which comes to us in gifts of bread and wine. Come as you are. Instructions for people joining this meal for the first time are printed in the bulletin.

♿️ ♿️ ♿️ ACCESSIBILITY

Parking for people with disabilities are available next to the Meditation Labyrinth. You are welcome to bring your walker or wheelchair into the sanctuary. If you have hearing difficulties, please ask one of the greeters for a sound enhancing headset. There are also large print hymnals available in the entry.

What profit is there ¹ in my death?
Can dust praise you? Can it proclaim your ¹ faithfulness?

Listen to me, O ¹ Holy One?
Have mercy on me! Please ¹ be my help!

 Christ will come, will come a - gain.
 Christ has died, Christ is ris - en,
 Christ will come, will come a - gain.

Celebrant: Therefore we come in memory and hope,
 responding to your call ...
 ...through Jesus Christ, in whom all ages and all the worlds are drawn into the ceaseless love of Father, Son and Holy Spirit, for ever and ever.

Celebrant: As our Saviour taught us, let us pray:

The Lord's Prayer

hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come.
Your will be done on earth as in heaven.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant: We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

People: We, being many, are one body,
for we all share in the one bread.

Agnus Dei (Lamb of God)

The Invitation

Receiving Communion

If you know the brokenness of life, its fractures within and its division without, then you have participated in the broken body of Christ and you are invited to share in the breaking of bread.

If you desire to know the love of God that overcomes indifference and despair, if you desire the reconciliation that overcomes estrangement and alienation, then you are invited to share the cup of the new covenant.

The bread is received in the open palm. It is usual Anglican practice to drink the wine from the common cup. Wine and unfermented grape juice are served. If you would prefer to receive a gluten-free wafer or grape juice, please inform the person administering the bread or wine when they approach you. If you would prefer to receive a blessing instead of Communion, you are welcome to come forward and place your hands across your chest.

Communion Hymn Neither Death Nor Life by Marty Haugen
Refrain sung by all. Verses sung by cantor.

Nei - ther death, nor life, nor an - gels, nor rul - ers, nor trials in the pres - ent, nor an - y trial to come, nei - ther height, nor depth, nor all of cre - a - tion can ev - er

sep - a - rate us from the love of God poured out in Christ Je - sus our Lord.

1. Dwell in the one who raised Christ from the dead; though your body shall die, in Christ you shall rise through the Spirit who brings you to life.
2. All who are led by the Spirit shall live as children of God, and heirs with Christ Jesus, God's adopted and chosen and loved.
3. All of the suff'ring we now must endure is nothing to the glory so soon to be revealed when creation itself is set free.
4. All of creation awaits the new birth, the fullness of redemption, through labor pains of love, and so we wait in patience and hope.
5. Who can separate us from the love of Christ? Will hardship or distress, persecution or famine, or nakedness or peril or sword?

Prayer After Communion

Celebrant: God of power,

All: we are nourished by the riches of your grace.
Raise us to new life in your Son Jesus Christ
and fit us for his eternal kingdom,
that all the world may call him Lord.
We ask this in his name. Amen.

Family Thanksgiving & Announcements

All are invited to share if they know of any birthdays, anniversaries or other celebrations. As sharing concludes, all say "Amen".

All stand as able

Celebrant: Glory to God.

All: whose power, working in us,
can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

Blessing

Celebrant: May the outrageous welcome of the Father accept us for who we are;
May the incarnation of the Word
touch and hold us close;
May the wandering of the Spirit
help us risk ourselves for love;
And the blessing of God,
the one who creates, restores, and inspires be with you now and for ever.

All: Amen.

 82 Recessional Hymn Hallelujah! We Sing Your Praises (sing vs 1,2,1)

Dismissal

Celebrant: Go in hope, bearing the message of love, of service, of community into the world that God loves.

People: Thanks be to God.

Dear Friends,

Thank you very much for the party you threw for me on Sunday and for the wonderful gift of my cope. You said so many lovely things about my 20 years as deacon. I fear the parish may need a special rite of confession to deal with the sin of exaggeration! Marg and I enjoyed the party immensely and I have not laughed so hard for a long time. Who was that terrible preacher anyway??

The cope is beautiful and captures the blessing of what I want to carry with me when I travel around the Diocese – carrying the blessing of YOU. Janet Tufnall's creative vision is marvellous, isn't it, as she created the "Cope of Many Colours." I just hope the other archdeacons do not follow the example of Joseph's brothers when we next meet.

Blessings to all of you. There is so much more to come!

In Jesus' name, Bruce
