WELCOME TO OUR CHURCH

Whoever you are, and wherever you find yourself in your journey of faith, you will find a place at our table at St. Hilda's Anglican Church. Come as you are. There are many ways and there is no one particular way to be a part of this vibrant community. Join us today with an open mind, and be prepared to discover a home for your spirit that is inclusive, incarnational, and joyful.

CHILDREN

Children play a central part when we gather to worship. We welcome them as they gather for a Children's Time at the beginning of the service and then send them off to Sunday School. They return in time for Communion—the Lord's supper (grape juice is available for communing). A Quiet Room is available for parents with babies and toddlers at the back of the Church.

HOLY COMMUNION

ALL are welcome to come forward and receive communion, the divine life of Jesus which comes to us in gifts of bread and wine. Come as you are. Instructions for people joining this meal for the first time are printed in the bulletin.

♿️ ♻️ ♻️ ACCESSIBILITY

Parking for people with disabilities are available next to the Meditation Labyrinth. You are welcome to bring your walker or wheelchair into the sanctuary. If you have hearing difficulties, please ask one of the greeters for a sound enhancing headset. There are also large print hymnals available in the entry.

Affirmation of Faith

All rise as able

Celebrant We are called to proclaim the truth and let us believe:

It is not true that this world and its people
are doomed to die and to be lost.

PEOPLE This is true:
I have come that they may have life in all its abundance.

Celebrant It is not true that we must accept inhumanity and discrimination,
hunger and poverty, death and destruction.

PEOPLE This is true:
The deaf hear, the dead are raised to life,
the poor are hearing the good news.

Celebrant It is not true that violence and hatred
should have the last word
and that war and destruction have come to stay forever.

PEOPLE This is true:
I have come that they may have life in all its abundance.

Celebrant It is not true that this world and its people
are doomed to die and to be lost.

PEOPLE This is true:
Death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning
nor crying nor pain any more.

Celebrant It is not true that we are simply victims of the powers of evil who seek to rule the world.

PEOPLE This is true:
The Lord whom we seek will suddenly come to the temple;
and the Lord is like a refining fire.

Celebrant It is not true that our dreams of liberation, of human dignity,
are not meant for this earth and for this history.

PEOPLE This is true:
It is already time for us to wake from sleep.
For the night is far gone, the day is at hand.

The Prayers of the People

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant We are human;

PEOPLE We strive to love, but we often fail.
Jesus, we confess that we do not always answer
when you call us to bear your light in the world.
Although we long for love,
too often we fail to accept it or to offer it.
Help us let go of our failings.
Renew our hearts.
Fill us anew with your love. Amen.

Celebrant God says to you, — I love you for your own sake.
Know that you are loved and forgiven.
Jesus invites you to pick up your lives anew
And walk in love.

PEOPLE Amen.

The Peace (Please stand as we share the peace of the Lord)

Celebrant In the tender mercy of our God,
the dayspring from on high shall break upon us,
to give light to those who dwell in darkness
and in the shadow of death,
and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

May the peace of the Lord be always with you.

PEOPLE And also with you.

The Invitation

Receiving Communion

If you know the brokenness of life, its fractures within and its division without, then you have participated in the broken body of Christ and you are invited to share in the breaking of bread.

If you desire to know the love of God that overcomes indifference and despair, if you desire the reconciliation that overcomes estrangement and alienation, then you are invited to share the cup of the new covenant.

The bread is received in the open palm. It is usual Anglican practice to drink the wine from the common cup. Wine and unfermented grape juice are served. If you would prefer to receive a gluten-free wafer or grape juice, please inform the person administering the bread or wine when they approach you. If you would prefer to receive a blessing instead of Communion, you are welcome to come forward and place your hands across your chest.

Communion Hymn: Prepare the Way
