Worship this Morning

The disciples of John asked Jesus, "Rabbi, where are you staying?"
He said to them, "Come and see." John 1:38, 39

You too once came and saw, and something you experienced here at St. Hilda's invited you to remain and stay. And by your remaining and staying, you have enriched others who too have seen and made St. Hilda's their spiritual home. Here in this place we call home, we are gathered into Christ's body, a community of transformation of mind, heart and action, and we are sent into the world to be and to act as a sign of God's love.

This Sunday we are most pleased to welcome Bishop Melissa Skelton and her husband the Rev. Eric Stroo to worship with us. Bishop Skelton is the Chief Missioner and Pastor in our diocese. As our bishop, she is a tangible sign, as well as a practical instrument, of our unity in Christ's mission for Anglican Christians in the Lower Mainland and beyond. For 80 years since 1936, the Parish of St. Hilda's has been a part of this bishop-centered mission of the Diocese of New Westminster. Since her consecration as the 9th Bishop of New Westminster in 2014, Bishop Skelton has worked tirelessly to develop leadership among the 70+ parishes and to instill a culture of transparency, courage, and collaboration in the way we witness the love of Christ right where we are. As our pastor, she will preside at the Lord's Table and preach at our Holy Eucharist this morning.

Our worship today reflects the inclusivity and diversity celebrated at St. Hilda's. Good old hymns, new music, contemplative chants, and native ceremonies and songs are woven into our common prayer. The two-row Wampum belt hanging below the sanctuary cross reminds us of our commitment to heal and walk alongside with the Indigenous peoples of the Salish Coast.

Following worship, you are invited to enjoy a light lunch with Melissa and Eric in the Parish Hall. After lunch, the bishop will join us for our monthly Parish Conversation on the topic "Anglican Identity in a post-religious world." To provide a baseline understanding of Anglican Identity, you are invited to read an abridged version of John Westerhoff's articulation of Anglican spirituality and temperament which was attached to your broadcast email. Copies are available in the Narthex.

CHILDREN Children are welcomed at the beginning of the service and then sent off to Sunday School. They return in time for Communion—the Lord's supper (grape juice is available for communing). A Quiet Room is available for parents with babies and toddlers at the back of the Church.

HOLY COMMUNION ALL are welcome to come forward and receive communion, the divine life of Jesus which comes to us in gifts of bread and wine. Come as you are. Instructions for people joining this meal for the first time are printed in the bulletin.

♿️ 🗣️ ♿️ ACCESSIBILITY You are welcome to bring your walker or wheelchair into the sanctuary. If you have hearing difficulties, please ask one of the greeters for a sound enhancing headset. There are also large print hymnals available in the entry.

Your lov - ing loy - al - ty is ev - er with us, Ho - ly One.

- 1 I waited patiently up-¹on the Lord * who stooped to me and ¹heard my cry.

 and set my feet on a high cliff and made my ¹footing sure.
- 3 God put a new song ¹in my mouth, *
 a song of praise ¹to our God;
 many shall see, and ¹stand in awe, *
 and put their trust ¹in the Lord.
- 4 Happy are they who trust ¹in the Lord! *
 they do not resort to evil spirits or turn ¹to false gods.
- 5 Great things are they that you have done, O ¹Lord my God! *
 how great your wonders and your ¹plans for us!
 There is none who can be com-¹pared with you. *
 Oh, that I could make them known and tell them,
 but they are more than ¹I can count. Refrain
- 6 In sacrifice and offering you ¹take no pleasure *
 (you have given me ears to hear you);
 burnt-offering and sin-offering you have ¹not required.

7 And so I said, “Be-¹hold, I come. *
 In the roll of the book it is written con-¹cerning me:
 8 ‘I love to do your will, ¹O my God; *
 your law is deep with-¹in my heart.’”
 9 I proclaimed righteousness in the great ¹congregation; *
 behold, I did not restrain my lips; and that, O ¹Lord, you know.
 10 Your righteousness have I not hidden ¹in my heart; *
 I have spoken of your faithfulness and ¹your deliverance;
 I have not concealed your ¹love and faithfulness *
 from the great ¹congregation.
 11 You are the Lord; do not withhold your compas-¹sion from me; *
 let your love and your faithfulness keep me ¹safe for ever.

The Invitation

Receiving Communion

If you know the brokenness of life, its fractures within and its division without, then you have participated in the broken body of Christ and you are invited to share in the breaking of bread. If you desire to know the love of God that overcomes indifference and despair, if you desire the reconciliation that overcomes estrangement and alienation, then you are invited to share the cup of the new covenant.

The bread is received in the open palm. It is usual Anglican practice to drink the wine from the common cup. Wine and unfermented grape juice are served. If you would prefer to receive a gluten-free wafer or grape juice, please inform the person administering the bread or wine when they approach you. If you would prefer to receive a blessing instead of Communion, you are welcome to come forward and place your hands across your chest.

Cedar Brushing Ceremony

After receiving communion, you are invited to participate in an act of reconciliation in the form of a native Cedar Brushing ceremony. This Coast Salish ceremony involves brushing with cedar bows dipped in water from a local sacred source to remove your negative feelings, ill will, and hurt. It is a ceremony to cleanse body, mind, and soul.

Communion Hymn: Jesus, Your Light Sing 3X (English, French, English)

Ostinato Refrain

Je - sus, your light is shin - ing with - in us.

Let not my doubts nor my dark - ness speak to me.

Je - sus, your light is shin - ing with - in us.

Let my heart al - ways wel - come your love.

Jésus le Christ, lumière intérieure, ne laisse pas mes ténèbres me parler.
Jésus le Christ, lumière intérieure, donne-moi d'accueillir ton amour.

St. Hilda's Mission Principles

At St. Hilda's our aim is to create a sacred space where we can be nourished and nourish others through our practices of Worship, Hospitality, and Justice.

Hospitality: The Lord's Table is the foundation of our understanding of hospitality - a safe place where all are welcome just as they are, broken yet blessed, all seeking food that satisfies. We aim to be an inclusive, sacred space in our community. We support a variety of expression of Spirit where people are committed to listen to each other, honour each other's beliefs and perspectives, and to create a safe environment for healthy, vibrant dialogue with friends and strangers alike.

Worship: As a Christ-centred community, our parish recognizes worship as a means of inspiring connection to the Divine through prayer, contemplation, music, and liturgy, with lay and ordained participation. We offer a variety of worship services to honour the diverse worshiping style of our community. We value community more than an ascribed set of beliefs.

Justice: Our faith informs us that the foundation of our practice of justice is right relationship with all of creation. Jesus calls us to seek out, serve, and learn from those who are marginalized. We seek justice through compassionate listening, extending hospitality to all, advocacy, prayer, and caring for the earth.
