WELCOME TO OUR CHURCH

Whoever you are, and wherever you find yourself in your journey of faith, you will find a place at our table at St. Hilda's Anglican Church. Come as you are. There are many ways and there is no one particular way to be a part of this vibrant community. Join us today with an open mind, and be prepared to discover a home for your spirit that is inclusive, incarnational, and joyful.

WHO WE ARE

St. Hilda, situated on the unceded traditional territory of the shíshálh First Nation, is a member of the Anglican Church of Canada & the worldwide Anglican Communion. As a community, we welcome & celebrate human diversity - including spirituality, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, & abilities. We aim to create a space where people of any faith or none can question & discover the sacred in life through openness, struggle, laughter & prayer, lived out through a common commitment to be in solidarity with the poor & marginalized, & to cherish creation.

CHILDREN

Children are welcomed to gather for a Children's Commissioning at the beginning of the service and then can go to Sunday School. They return in time for Communion—the Lord's supper (grape juice is available for communing). A Quiet Room is available for parents with babies and toddlers at the back of the Church.

HOLY COMMUNION

ALL are welcome to come forward and receive communion, the divine life of Jesus which comes to us in gifts of bread and wine. Come as you are. Instructions for people joining this meal for the first time are printed in the bulletin.

♿️ ♿️ ACCESSIBILITY

Parking for people with disabilities is available next to the Meditation Labyrinth. You are welcome to bring your walker or wheelchair into the sanctuary. If you have hearing difficulties, please ask one of the greeters for a sound enhancing headset. There are also large print hymnals available in the entry.

Prelude

Introduction & Welcome

All rise as able as the Sanctuary party processes in.

♪ Processional Hymn Throughout These Lenten Days & Nights (Tune CP182)

1. Throughout these Lenten days and nights
we turn to walk the inward way, where, meeting Christ, our guide and light
we live in hope till Easter Day.
2. The pilgrim Christ, the Lamb of God, who found in weakness greater power,
embraces us, though lost and flawed,
and leads us to his Rising Hour.
3. We bear the silence, cross and pain of human burdens, human strife, while sisters, brothers help sustain our courage till the Feast of Life.
4. And though the road is hard and steep, the Spirit ever calls us on through Calvary's dying, dark and deep, until we see the coming Dawn.
5. So let us choose the path of One who wore, for us, the crown of thorn, and slept in death that we might wake to life on Resurrection Morn!
6. Rejoice, O sons and daughters!
Sing and shout hosannas! Raise the strain!
For Christ, whose death Good Friday brings on Easter Day will rise again!

Greeting

Celebrant Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another as Christ forgave you.

PEOPLE Create in me a clean heart, O God:
and renew a right spirit within me.

Lenten Exhortation

Celebrant Dear friends in Christ, every year at the time of the Christian Passover
we celebrate our redemption through the death and resurrection of Christ Jesus.
Lent is a time to prepare for this celebration and to renew our life in the paschal mystery.
We begin this holy season by remembering our forgetfulness of the good way of our Creator, and praying for a return to this path through repentance and forgiveness proclaimed in the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
I invite you therefore, in the name of the Lord,
to observe a holy Lent by self-examination, penitence, prayer, fasting, almsgiving and resting, and by reading and meditating on the word of God.

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Let us lay down our brokenness before God in the presence of one another

ALL We confess to you the truth of our broken lives.
We have not trusted your promises or walked in your ways.
We have hoarded and squandered the gifts of your creation.
We have failed to welcome the stranger and the outcast,
And to make room at the table
for the homeless and the hungry.
We have neither worked to release the oppressed
nor admitted our own captivities.
Forgive our sin, heal our lives, and set us free that we might live with your whole creation in the justice and joy of your promised future.

Celebrant God, who is merciful and kind,
slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love, hears the cries of all who plead for mercy and, in these last days, has sent Christ Jesus to announce the good news of forgiveness and release to all who are bound by guilt or broken by shame, that they might praise God and serve the world with glad and generous hearts.
For freedom Christ has set you free.

PEOPLE Thanks be to God.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant Gracious Father-Mother,
ALL your Son battled with the powers of darkness and grew closer to you in the desert:
 help us to use these days to grow in wisdom and prayer,
 so that we may witness to your saving love
 in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

All are seated

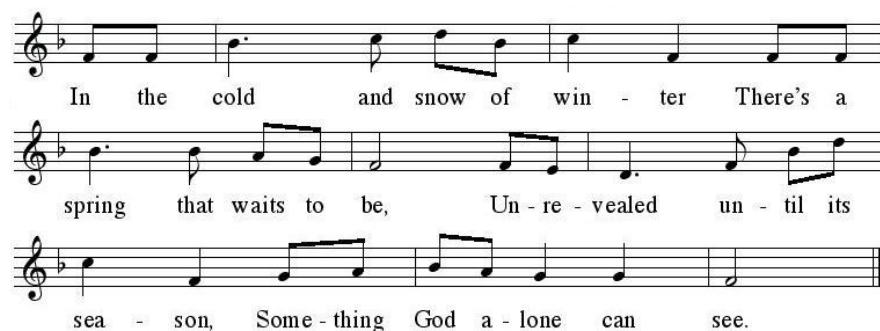

Children's Commissioning & Song

Children are invited to gather in front of the altar to receive a prayer of commissioning to Sunday School. As the children leave, those sitting on the aisle are invited to form an arch for children to come through as they head out for Sunday School as we sing In the Bulb There is a Flower.

In the bulb there is a flower; In the seed, an apple tree; In cocoons, a hidden promise: Butterflies will soon be free!

world: have mer-cy on us.
Lamb of God you take a-way the sins of the world: grant us your peace.
Grant us your peace.

The Invitation

Receiving Communion

If you know the brokenness of life, its fractures within and its division without, then you have participated in the broken body of Christ and you are invited to share in the breaking of bread. If you desire to know the love of God that overcomes indifference and despair, if you desire the reconciliation that overcomes estrangement and alienation, then you are invited to share the cup of the new covenant.

The bread is received in the open palm. It is usual Anglican practice to drink the wine from the common cup. Wine and unfermented grape juice are served. If you would prefer to receive a gluten-free wafer or grape juice, please inform the person administering the bread or wine when they approach you. If you would prefer to receive a blessing instead of Communion, you are welcome to come forward and place your hands across your chest.

Choral Anthem Sunday's Palms Are Wednesday's Ashes

Prayer After Communion

Celebrant Faithful God,
ALL in this holy bread
you increase our faith and hope and love.

Celebrant Glory to God.
ALL whose power, working in us,
can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.

in the Church and in Christ Jesus,
for ever and ever. Amen.

PARISH EVENTS & NOTICES

Rest In Peace: Our beloved parishioner Kathy Archibald died peacefully Friday morning March 3 at Sechelt Hospital. Celebration of Life to be announced. May she rest in peace and rise in glory.

Vestry Meeting UPDATE: Sunday March 19. Vestry Report Supplement containing Financial Reports, 2017 Budget and Nominations Report is available for pick-up on the table in the Narthex. It was also attached to E-Bulltin.

Volunteer Need: Pastoral Care Coordinator

Following up on the suggestions received during the Parish Conversation on Pastoral Care last November, Church Committee has created a Position Description for a Pastoral Care Coordinator to enhance the offering of care at St. Hilda's. Interested parishioners may pick up a copy of the description in the Narthex or view it on the parish website. Please contact the Rector if you are interested in serving in this ministry by March 14.

Parishioners' Picks: Spare Parts Monday March 6 at 7:00 pm

Based on a true story, four undocumented Hispanic high school students form a robotics club. With no experience, 800 bucks, and used car parts they go up against the reigning champs from MIT.

"Spare Parts could have been a run-of-the-mill underdog story, but it becomes something both broader and deeper than you might expect. By showing us the obstacles that these undocumented immigrants face in trying to make something of their lives – or just hold on to hope, it forces us to think about an ongoing social and political issue and what it means to real people. It tells the story with drama, humour and, especially humanity. This is an interesting, entertaining, thought-provoking and touching film. It may cause a tear, it will probably cause you to think and it will almost definitely cause you to enjoy your hour and a half in the theatre. "A" (IMdB) (Stephanie's pick)

Automated External Defibrillators: Church Committee has approved the purchase of an AED for St. Hilda's. The ACW has generously offered to pay for half. These units cost approx. $1400 each. Any donations toward the cost will be greatly appreciated, and can be made through your envelopes. An AED, in combination with CPR, can save the life of an individual of any age, who develops a critical change in heart rhythm. The AED is safely designed to be used by the general public, and provides prompts each step of the way. Amelia Foster has offered to do a training session for anyone interested in this, with the date to be announced. A second AED may be donated to St. Hilda's as well, which will allow us to place these units strategically in our buildings.

An Evening with Matthew Wright: Saturday March 25 at 7:00 pm at St. Hilda's. Suggested donation $10-15. Matthew Wright is a leading voice in the emerging field of inter-spirituality, working to renew the Christian Wisdom Tradition within a wider inter-spiritual framework. Please see poster in breeze-way for more info.

Sunshine Coast Sub-deanery Safe Church Training Day: March 25

Anti-racism Training: 10 am - 5 pm | Sexual Misconduct Workshop: 10 am - 2 pm
at Powell River United Church, 6932 Crofton St, Powell River

Parish leaders are invited to take part in one of these training sessions to help our church be a safer and more inclusive space to practice ministry. Come and meet other clergy and lay leaders from similar rural ministry settings on the Coast and enjoy breaking bread together on the Feast of the Annunciation.

To REGISTER: Contact Janet Palin at St. David/St. Paul Anglican Church by email (anglican1@telus.net) or by phone 604 483 4230

Diocesan ACW (Anglican Church Women):

BLANKET DRIVE: As part of their on-going Social Action/outreach, bales of clothing and household items are sent three times a year to parishes in Northern BC and the Diocese of the Yukon. Blankets are used to secure items before being placed in heavy duty plastic sleeves for shipping. Donations of clean, gently used double/queen size blankets (crocheted, knit or regular) would be most appreciated. Not only will they be used to wrap the bales, but they will keep someone else warm.

SOCK DRIVE: We have learnt that many children do not have a change of socks when the pair they are wearing is wet or not warm enough so ACW has initiated a Sock Drive to collect socks to be distributed to school children in BC. Donations of socks can be placed in the box in the Narthex.

Please see Amelia Foster (our ACW president) if you can help out or need further information. Cell: 604-782-1351 Email: fosda@hotmail.com

Whale of a Sale & Plant Sale: Saturday May 6

Please start setting aside items you wish to donate for this sale. Make sure all items are clean and in working order. Look for list of acceptable items in the Narthex. Calling for Outdoor Plants: Please start dividing and potting up or starting cuttings of outdoor plants that can be used for this sale. Also, we need two more people to help out on the day of the sale. Please contact Janet McConnell at 886-2213.

St. Hilda's Mission Principles

At St. Hilda's our aim is to create a sacred space where we can be nourished and nourish others through our practices of Worship, Hospitality, and Justice.

Hospitality: The Lord's Table is the foundation of our understanding of hospitality - a safe place where all are welcome just as they are, broken yet blessed, all seeking food that satisfies. We aim to be an inclusive, sacred space in our community. We support a variety of expression of Spirit where people are committed to listen to each other, honour each other's beliefs and perspectives, and to create a safe environment for healthy, vibrant dialogue with friends and strangers alike.

Worship: As a Christ-centred community, our parish recognizes worship as a means of inspiring connection to the Divine through prayer, contemplation, music, and liturgy, with lay and ordained participation. We offer a variety of worship services to honour the diverse worshiping style of our community. We value community more than an ascribed set of beliefs.

Justice: Our faith informs us that the foundation of our practice of justice is right relationship with all of creation. Jesus calls us to seek out, serve, and learn from those who are marginalized. We seek justice through compassionate listening, extending hospitality to all, advocacy, prayer, and caring for the earth.
