Welcome to Church

we are glad you are here.

The doors are open...our hearts are too!

Whoever you are, and wherever you find yourself in your journey of faith, you will find a place at our table at St. Hilda's Anglican Church. Come as you are. There are many ways and there is no one particular way to be a part of this vibrant community. Join us today with an open mind, and be prepared to discover a home for your spirit that is inclusive, incarnational, and joyful.

WHO WE ARE

St. Hilda, situated on the unceded traditional territory of the shísháhl First Nation, is a member of the Anglican Church of Canada & the worldwide Anglican Communion. As a community, we welcome & celebrate human diversity - including spirituality, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, & abilities. We aim to create a space where people of any faith or none can question & discover the sacred in life through openness, struggle, laughter & prayer, lived out through a common commitment to be in solidarity with the poor & marginalized, & to cherish creation.

CHILDREN

We welcome them to come for Communion—the Lord's supper (grape juice is available for communing) or for a blessing. A Quiet Room is available for parents with babies and toddlers at the back of the Church.

HOLY COMMUNION

ALL are welcome to come forward and receive communion, the divine life of Jesus which comes to us in gifts of bread and wine. Come as you are. Instructions for people joining this meal for the first time are printed in the bulletin.

ACCESSIBILITY

Parking for people with disabilities are available next to the Meditation Labyrinth. You are welcome to bring your walker or wheelchair into the sanctuary. If you have hearing difficulties, please ask one of the greeters for a sound enhancing headset. There are also large print hymnals available in the entry.

The Prayers of the People

Please stand, sit or kneel according to your praying custom. Names upheld in the prayers can be found on the Parish List in the bulletin. You are also welcome to name your loved one(s) aloud or silently in your heart.

LEADER: Hear us, O God RESPONSE: Your mercy is great.

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Let us lay down our brokenness before God in the presence of one another.

ALL We confess to you the truth of our broken lives.
We have not trusted your promises or walked in your ways.
We have hoarded and squandered the gifts of your creation.
We have failed to welcome the stranger and the outcast, and to make room at the table for the homeless and the hungry.

We have neither worked to release the oppressed nor admitted our own captivities.
Forgive our sin, heal our lives, and set us free that we might live with your whole creation in the justice and joy of your promised future.

Celebrant God, who is merciful and kind,
slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love, hears the cries of all who plead for mercy and in these last days, has sent Christ Jesus to announce the good news of forgiveness and release to all who are bound by guilt or broken by shame, that they might praise God and serve the world with glad and generous hearts.
For freedom Christ has set you free.

PEOPLE Thanks be to God.

The Peace Please rise as able as we share the peace of the Lord.

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be with you all.

PEOPLE And also with you.

✠ The Holy Communion ✠

The Offertory

During the hymn, the bread and wine for the Lord's Supper are presented alongside with the offering of money to symbolize the offering of ourselves and of the whole creation to God in thanksgiving for the many blessings we experienced.

Offertory Hymn Praise and Thanksgiving (Tune Morning has Broken)

1. Praise and thanksgiving, God, we would offer for all things living, you have made good:
harvest of sown fields, fruits of the orchard,
hay from the mown fields, blossom and wood.
2. God, bless the labour we bring to serve you, that with our neighbour we may be fed.
Sowing or tilling, we would work with you, harvesting, milling for daily bread.
3. Father, providing food for your children, by Wisdom's guiding teach us to share one with another, so that, rejoicing with us, all others may know your care.
4. Then will your blessing reach ev'ry people, freely confessing your gracious hand.
Where you are reigning, no one will hunger;
your love sustaining showers the land.

Prayer over the Gifts

Celebrant Holy One,

ALL your word creates in us a yearning for your kingdom.
Receive all we offer you this day,
and keep us in your peace;
for the sake of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer

“Eucharist” means “thanksgiving”. This is a ritual meal to re-enact the Last Supper that Jesus shared with his friends to remind them of his sacrificial love for humanity and the whole creation. All stand as able.

Celebrant: The Spirit of God be with you. All: And al - so with you.

Celebrant: Lift your hearts to heaven All: where Christ in glo-ry reigns.

Celebrant:
Let us give thanks to God All: It is right to of-fer thanks & praise.

Celebrant God of blessing, we thank you always for making us in your image to serve the peace of all creation...

...Therefore with all the people whose story you have shaped, with women and men of faith in every part of the world we glory in your generous love and sing in praise of you:

Sanctus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly; God of mer - cy giv - er of life;

earth and sea and sky and all that lives declare your presence and your glo-ry. Ho - san-na! Ho - san-na! Ho - san - na in the high - est!

Celebrant We ask that your Holy Spirit will fall upon us and upon these gifts that these fragile, earthly things may be to us the body and blood of our Lord and brother, Jesus Christ.

Sung: On the night you were betrayed you took the bread
After giving thanks you broke it and said
This is my body broken for you
And as you do this remember me.

ALL sing:* This is my body broken for you
And as you do this remember me.

Celebrant On the night you were betrayed you held the cup
After giving thanks you lifted it up
This is my life poured out for you
And as you do this remember me.

ALL sing:* This is my life poured out for you
And as you do this remember me.

Celebrant So we thank you for the cup and for the bread for we see the life you gave and the love you shared
And we remember your wondrous love.
You gave your body , You shared your love.

ALL sing:* And we remember your wondrous love
You gave your body, You shared your love.

Celebrant As on that night, so here and now he offers himself in touch and taste beyond all words can hold.

Great is the mystery of faith

PEOPLE Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Celebrant Therefore, we come in memory and hope, responding to your call...

...through Jesus Christ, in whom all ages and all worlds are drawn into the ceaseless love of Father, Son and Holy Spirit for ever and ever.

PEOPLE Amen

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant Gathered around the table by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.

cont'd over→

Your kingdom come.
Your will be done on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours
now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

PEOPLE We, being many, are one body, for we share in the one bread.

Agnus Dei (Lamb of God)

Lamb - of God, you take a - way the sin of the world: have - mer - cy on - us. Lamb - of God, you take a - way the sin of the world: O grant us your peace — , grant us your peace.

The Invitation

Receiving Communion

If you know the brokenness of life, its fractures within and its division without, then you have participated in the broken body of Christ and you are invited to share in the breaking of bread.

If you desire to know the love of God that overcomes indifference and despair, if you desire the reconciliation that overcomes estrangement and alienation, then you are invited to share the cup of the new covenant.

The bread is received in the open palm. It is usual Anglican practice to drink the wine from the common cup. Wine and unfermented grape juice are served. If you would prefer to receive a gluten-free wafer or grape juice, please inform the person administering the bread or wine when they approach you. If you would prefer to receive a blessing instead of Communion, you are welcome to come forward and place your hands across your chest.

🎵 Communion Hymn.....Eat This Bread

Prayer After Communion

Celebrant Living God,
ALL in this sacrament we have shared in your eternal kingdom.
 May we who taste this mystery forever serve you in faith, hope, and love.
 We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

Family Thanksgiving & Announcements

All are invited to share if they know of any birthdays, anniversaries or other celebrations. All stand as able

Celebrant Glory to God,
PEOPLE Whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
 Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever.
 Amen.

Blessing

Celebrant Let God's hope be a clearing sky before you, a compass in your heart guiding you to where you belong.
 And the blessing of God,
 Life-Giver, Pain-Bearer, and Love-Maker, be among you and remain with you always.
PEOPLE Amen.

Parish Events and Notices

Sunday Worship in the Hall: As repair work began on the north wall of the sanctuary, it was discovered that the north and south walls were out of plumb. A structural engineer was called in and he instructed that a roof truss tie rod be installed immediately to properly support the roof which has sagged. Until the remediation is completed, the sanctuary is closed for public assembly. As Hospitality is one of St. Hilda's Mission Principles, it is our duty to ensure safety for all who are gathered to worship at St. Hilda's. Please continue to remember this remediation project in your prayers.

Next Sunday — Celebrating the Feast of St. Mary Magdalene, Apostle of the Apostles: We shall gather next week to observed the Feast of Mary Magdalene for the first time on a Sunday at St. Hilda's. Last year Pope Francis raised the July 22 memorial of St. Mary Magdalene to a feast on the church's liturgical calendar by his decree titled "Apostolorum Apostola" ("Apostle of the Apostles"). In recent years, Mary Magdalene has been re-discovered by scholars and spiritual teachers as an icon bearing witness to the Wisdom of Christ. Come and celebrate a special liturgy prepared by the Worship Committee and encounter Mary anew.

Mark your calendar for Parish Picnic: Church Committee has set the date for the Parish Picnic to be held on Sunday, September 10 following after the 10:00 am service at Porpoise Bay Provincial Park Group Day Use area. This would be a good day to welcome everyone back and an opportunity to invite new friends to share our fellowship.

Music Director Away: Katherine is attending an organ festival in Montreal and then is on holidays with family. She will return next Sunday July 23. Karen Weatherington and Jon Eriksson will be our musicians while she is away.

Automated External Defibrillator: The total $2,000 needed has been raised! Thanks to all who contributed and to the ACW. A training session by Amelia Foster for all interested will be held once the AED is installed.

Calling for Dump-run Coupons: If you are not using your Dump Run coupon from the Sechelt District, please consider "donating" it to the church. Write your address on the form, sign it and drop it off at the office (leave the license plate line blank as that will be filled out by the vehicle taking the stuff to the dump).

Monday Musings: The bi-weekly book group resumes Monday, August 14 at 3 pm. The book being studied is Farley Mowat's Rescue the Earth: Conversations with Green Crusaders which consists of conversations between Mowat & proponents of several of the most active & representative of the combat units in the environmental movement. Though written in the 90s, the insights of this generation of green crusaders continue to inspire and challenge us. All are welcome.

Morning Prayer on Tuesdays/Thursdays is not meeting in the summer. The Rector will offer an introductory session in September for those who would like to explore incorporating this daily prayer practice into their spiritual discipline.

Gospel of Thomas: is breaking for the summer and will resume September 8.

Inner Journey - CRMC: There will be no service in August. It will resume on September 17.

Education for Ministry: EfM will start up again September 7. If you are interested in knowing more about this program, contact Meg Stevens at 604-741-4036. You can also check it out at www.efmcanada.ca.

The Power of Pie: The ACW need our parishioners, men and women, to bake pies for our Thanksgiving Pie Sale October 7 at St Hilda's. Your ACW each year supports local charities and world-wide missions. We appreciate your help in reaching our goal of 175 to 200 pies for this very popular community pie sale. In September, we will be in the breezeway with our clip board, 9" aluminum pie plates, Crisco and other pie supplies.

St. Hilda's Mission Principles

At St. Hilda's our aim is to create a sacred space where we can be nourished and nourish others through our practices of Worship, Hospitality, and Justice.

Hospitality: The Lord's Table is the foundation of our understanding of hospitality - a safe place where all are welcome just as they are, broken yet blessed, all seeking food that satisfies. We aim to be an inclusive, sacred space in our community. We support a variety of expression of Spirit where people are committed to listen to each other, honour each other's beliefs and perspectives, and to create a safe environment for healthy, vibrant dialogue with friends and strangers alike.

Worship: As a Christ-centred community, our parish recognizes worship as a means of inspiring connection to the Divine through prayer, contemplation, music, and liturgy, with lay and ordained participation. We offer a variety of worship services to honour the diverse worshiping style of our community. We value community more than an ascribed set of beliefs.

Justice: Our faith informs us that the foundation of our practice of justice is right relationship with all of creation. Jesus calls us to seek out, serve, and learn from those who are marginalized. We seek justice through compassionate listening, extending hospitality to all, advocacy, prayer, and caring for the earth.
