Worship in a New Season

Welcome to Season of Creation! For four Sundays in September leading up to St Francis of Assisi Day on October 1, we are invited to join in celebrating with creation with Christians around the world focusing on our forest, land, wilderness, rivers (today), and animals (Oct 1).

The idea of celebrating a Season of Creation began in the Lutheran Church in Adelaide, Australia in 2000. Now it is celebrated by many different churches all over the world. During our worship, we shall:

- celebrate Earth as a sacred planet filled with God's vibrant presence;
- unite with all creation in praising the God of creation;
- confess our sins against creation and empathise with a groaning creation;
- embrace our kin in creation as our extended family;
- proclaim the good news that the risen Jesus is the cosmic Christ who fills and renews all creation; and
- go forth on a mission to be partners with Christ in the healing of creation.

WHO WE ARE

St. Hilda, situated on the unceded traditional territory of the shíshálh First Nation, is a member of the Anglican Church of Canada & the worldwide Anglican Communion. As a community, we welcome & celebrate human diversity - including spirituality, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, & abilities. We aim to create a space where people of any faith or none can question & discover the sacred in life through openness, struggle, laughter & prayer, lived out through a common commitment to be in solidarity with the poor & marginalized, & to cherish creation.

CHILDREN

Children are welcomed to gather for a Children's Commissioning at the beginning of the service and then can go to Sunday School. They return in time for Communion—the Lord's supper (grape juice is available for communing).

HOLY COMMUNION

ALL are welcome to come forward and receive communion, the divine life of Jesus which comes to us in gifts of bread and wine. Come as you are. Instructions newcomers joining this meal for the first time are printed in the bulletin.

Video Meditation: Canadian Canoe Pilgrimage

🎵 424 Opening Hymn ..... Sing Praise to God (The Vicar of Bray)

1. Sing praise to God on mountain tops and in earth's lowest places, from blue lagoon to polar waste, from ocean to oasis.
No random rock produced this world, but God's own will and wonder.
Thus hills rejoice and valleys sing and clouds concur with thunder.
2. Sing praise to God where grasses grow and flowers display their beauty, where nature weaves her myriad web through love as much as duty.
The seasons in their cycle speak of earth's complete provision.
Let nothing mock inherent good, nor treat it with derision.
3. Sing praise to God where fishes swim and birds fly in formation, where animals of every kind diversify creation.
All life that finds its home on earth is meant to be respected.
Let nothing threaten, for base ends, what God through grace perfected.
4. Sing praise to God where humankind its majesty embraces, where different races, creeds, and tongues distinguish different faces.
God's image in each child of earth shall never pale or perish.
So treat with love each human soul, and thus God's goodness cherish.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God, our Creator,

ALL whose glory fills our planet,
help us to discern your vibrant presence among us especially in the wonders of the rivers, the streams, and the waterways of Earth.
Help us to be in solidarity with your wilderness creatures who are suffering.
Lift our spirits to rejoice
with the vibrant world of the rivers.
In the name of Christ,
who reconciles and renews all things in creation. Amen.

All are seated

Children's Commissioning & Song

Children are invited to gather in front of the altar to receive a prayer of commissioning to Sunday School. As the children leave, those sitting on the aisle are invited to form an arch for children to come through as they head out for Sunday School as we sing The Butterfly Song:

♪ If I were a butterfly
I'd thank you God for giving me wings
If I were a robin in a tree
I'd thank you God that I could sing
If I were a fish in the sea
I'd wiggle my tail and I'd giggle with glee
But I just thank you God for making me, me

Refrain

For you gave me a heart and you gave me a smile
You gave me Jesus and you made me your child
And I just thank you God for making me, me

Affirmation of Faith

Celebrant Let us affirm our faith together.

Women We believe that God creates all things, renews all things and celebrates all things.

Men We believe Earth is a sanctuary,
a sacred planet filled with God's presence,
a home for us to share with our kin.

Women We believe that God became flesh and blood, became a piece of Earth,
a human being called Jesus Christ,
who lived and breathed and spoke among us,
suffered and died on a cross
for all human beings and for all creation.

Men We believe that the risen Jesus is the Christ at the core of creation reconciling all things to God, renewing all creation and filling the cosmos.

Women We believe the Holy Spirit renews life in creation groans in empathy with a suffering creation, and waits with us for the rebirth of creation.

Together We believe that with Christ we will rise and with Christ we will celebrate a new creation. Amen.

 for all of us share the same breath.
 The wind gives our children the spirit of life.
 We forget that the earth does not belong to us;
 we belong to the earth.
 We forget that all things are connected,
 like the blood that unites one family.
 We forget that you are the same God whose compassion is equal for all.
 We forget that we did not weave the web of life;
 that we are merely a strand in it.
 Forgive us, O Creator, and help us to remember that whatever we do to the web, we do to ourselves.
 Forgive us, and accept our thanks for your gift of life.

Celebrant May your gracious Creator forgive you,
 heal your brokenness and forgetfulness,
 give you time to mend your lives,
 with the grace and help of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Your kingdom come.
Your will be done on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

you set us free from guilt and grave: have mer-cy now, we pray.
e - ter-nal peace with God you made: give us your peace, we pray.

The Invitation

Receiving Communion

If you know the brokenness of life, its fractures within and its division without, then you have participated in the broken body of Christ and you are invited to share in the breaking of bread.

If you desire to know the love of God that overcomes indifference and despair, if you desire the reconciliation that overcomes estrangement and alienation, then you are invited to share the cup of the new covenant.

The bread is received in the open palm. It is usual Anglican practice to drink the wine from the common cup. Wine and unfermented grape juice are served. If you would prefer to receive a gluten-free wafer or grape juice, please inform the person administering the bread or wine when they approach you. If you would prefer to receive a blessing instead of Communion, you are welcome to come forward and place your hands across your chest.

Choir Anthem: Deep River Traditional Spiritual arr. Adriano Secco

Instrumental Music: Deep River Traditional Spiritual arr. Brad Nix

Prayer After Communion

Celebrant Let us give thanks for this meal.

ALL We thank you, Christ,
for the meal we have celebrated with you,

PEOPLE Thanks be to God!

“The thing about healing, as opposed to curing, is that it is relational. It takes time. It is inefficient, like a meandering river. Rarely does healing follow a straight or well-lit path. Rarely does it conform to our expectations or resolve in a timely manner.”
