Season of Creation

Today is the last Sunday in this Season of Creation. We read the last part of the heartfelt address of the Rev. Emilie Smith to Judge Affleck during her recent court appearance when she was held in contempt to the court injunction for civil disobedience at the Kinder Morgan Pipeline Terminal. We pray that you have been touched by her words and will be motivated to connecting your prayers with actions to find meaningful ways to safeguard and cherish creation for generations to come.

May we continue to join the Planet Earth, Sky, Mountain, Animals, and fruits of the land to praise God from whom all blessings flow!

WELCOME TO OUR CHURCH

Whoever you are, and wherever you find yourself in your journey of faith, you will find a place at our table at St. Hilda's Anglican Church. Come as you are. There are many ways and there is no one particular way to be a part of this vibrant community. Join us today with an open mind, and be prepared to discover a home for your spirit that is inclusive, incarnational, and joyful.

WHO WE ARE

St. Hilda, situated on the unceded traditional territory of the shishalh First Nation, is a member of the Anglican Church of Canada & the worldwide Anglican Communion. As a community, we welcome & celebrate human diversity - including spirituality, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, and abilities. We aim to create a space where people of any faith or none can question & discover the sacred in life through openness, struggle, laughter and prayer, lived out through a common commitment to be in solidarity with the poor & marginalized, and to cherish creation.

CHILDREN

During the school year, children are invited to gather for a Children's Commissioning at the beginning of the service and then head out to Sunday School. They return in time for Communion—the Lord's supper (grape juice is available for communing).

HOLY COMMUNION

ALL are welcome to come forward and receive communion, the divine life of Jesus which comes to us in gifts of bread and wine. Come as you are. Instructions for newcomers joining this meal for the first time are printed in the bulletin.

Parking for people with disabilities is available next to the Meditation Labyrinth. You are welcome to bring your walker or wheelchair into the hall. There are also large print bulletins available in the entry.

Children's Time

Children are invited to gather in the front before leaving for Sunday School. As they head out for Sunday School, we sing:

He's got the flora and the fauna in his hands. (repeat 4X)

After each reading, there will be a short time of quiet meditation

The First Reading Joel 2:21-27 Annie Webb Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

ALL Thanks be to God.

Psalm 104*Verses spoken responsively left side /right side on bold* O You, who know all hearts, how manifold are your works!

In wisdom You have created them all;

the earth is filled with your creatures.

We took to the seas, great and wide,

which teem with life innumerable,

helping to maintain the balance.

O, that we might receive your gifts,

taking only what is needed with grateful hearts.

All of creation looks to You,

to give them food in due season.

When we are in harmony with You, the earth provides;

yes, a bountiful harvest to be shared with all. When we misuse what You have created for us, we blame You for the famine and destruction that ensues, and feel alienated from You.

Even so, You continue to send forth your Spirit, and the earth, though not without turmoil, is renewed.

The glory of the Radiant One endures forever, for the works of Love are sure.

You are ever-present to us, even as the earth trembles, even as the mountains spew forth ashes and smoke! I will abandon myself into your hands as long as I live;

I will sing praise to You while I have breath.

May my meditations be pleasing to You,

for I rejoice and am glad in You.

May all who feel separated from You open their hearts to new Life!

ALL: Praise the Creator of the Universe! Bless the Heart of my heart, O my soul! Amen.

Refrain sung by choir: Rise Up O My Soul by Linnea Good

Affirmation of Faith

Celebrant With the whole church,

ALL we affirm that we are made in God's image, befriended by Christ, empowered by the Spirit.

cont'd $over \rightarrow$

- Celebrant With people everywhere,
 - ALL we affirm God's goodness at the heart of humanity, planted more deeply than all that is wrong.
- Celebrant With creation,
 - ALL we celebrate the miracle and wonder of life; the unfolding purposes of God, forever at work in ourselves and the world. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Please stand, sit or kneel according to your praying custom. Names upheld in the prayers can be found on the Parish Prayer List on page 16. You are also welcome to name your loved one(s) aloud or silently in your heart.

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant PEOPLE	We confess to you our lack of care for the world you have given us. Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.
Celebrant	We confess to you our selfishness in not sharing the earth's bounty fairly. Christ, have mercy.
PEOPLE	Christ, have mercy.
Celebrant	We confess to you our failure to protect resources for others. Lord, have mercy.
PEOPLE	Lord, have mercy.
Celebrant	Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins against Creation, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
PEOPLE	Amen.

The Peace Please rise as able as we share the peace of the Lord.

- Celebrant The peace of the Lord be with you all.
 - PEOPLE And also with you.

✤ The Holy Communion ✤

The Offertory

During the hymn, the bread and wine are presented alongside with the offering of money for mission and ministry, given on the plate or through the Pre-Authorized Donation Program (PAD), to symbolize the offering of ourselves and of the whole creation to God in thanksgiving for the many blessings we experience.

Offertory Hymn My Life Flows On in Endless Song CP401 (see p. 12)

Prayer over the Gifts

Celebrant Source of all life,

PEOPLE the heaven and earth are yours, yet you have called us to be stewards. Receive the symbols of our labour and love which we offer you this day, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer

Eucharist means "thanksgiving." This is a ritual meal to re-enact the Last Supper that Jesus shared with his friends to remind them of his sacrificial love for humanity and the whole creation. All stand as able.

Celebrant	May God be with you.
PEOPLE	And also with you.
Celebrant	Lift up your hearts.
PEOPLE	We lift them up.
Celebrant	Let us give thanks to God our Creator.
People	It is right to give our thanks and praise.
Celebrant	It is right in all times and in all places to that

Celebrant It is right in all times and in all places to thank and praise you Creator of all....

...Together with angels and ancestors, orca and salmon, bear and raven, salal and cedar we join our voices with all creation in this ancient honour song:

Celebrant We give thanks to you for Jesus, whose first bed was a feed trough....

....All honour and glory are yours, Creator, Christ, Sprit, now and for ever.

PEOPLE Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant Let us pray as Jesus taught us:

ALL Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come.

Your will be done on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant Creator of all, you gave us golden fields of wheat, whose many grains we have gathered and made into this one bread.

PEOPLE So may your Church be gathered from the ends of the earth into your kingdom.

Agnus Dei (Lamb of God)

The Invitation Receiving Communion

If you know the brokenness of life, its fractures within and its division without, then you have participated in the broken body of Christ and you are invited to share in the breaking of bread. If you desire to know the love of God that overcomes indifference and despair, if you desire the reconciliation that overcomes estrangement and alienation, then you are invited to share the cup of the new covenant. The bread is received in the open palm. It is usual Anglican practice to drink the wine from the common cup. Wine and unfermented grape juice are served. If you would prefer to receive a gluten-free wafer or grape juice, please inform the person administering the bread or wine when they approach you. If you would prefer to receive a blessing instead of Communion, you are welcome to come forward and place your hands across your chest.

Choral Anthem: He Comes to Us as One Unknown by

Prayer After Communion

Celebrant God of our hope,

ALL in this eucharist we find the source of all your blessings. Nourished in these holy mysteries may we, with our lives, give you continual thanks and praise. This we ask in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Family Thanksgiving & Announcements

All are invited to share any birthdays, anniversaries or other celebrations. Our parish tradition is to say the following prayer by sharing eye-contact with those around us. All stand as able.

Celebrant Glory to God,

PEOPLE Whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

Blessing

Celebrant	May the Maker's blessing be yours, encircling you round, above you, within you.
	May the Song's blessing be yours,
	the wine and the water, the bread and the stories
	to feed you, to remind you.
	May the Spirit's blessing be yours,
	the wind, the fire, the still small voice
	to comfort you, to disturb you.
	And the blessing of God, Source of all life,
	Eternal Word, and Holy Spirit,
	be among you and remain with you always.
People	Amen.

- You who watch the highest heavens wond'ring where God's mansions are; You who hope to spot an angel Spinning like a falling star; Earth is calling, Earth is calling, Come back home and rest in me. Come back home and rest in me.
- You who build exotic buildings Taller than the forest tree, Don't you know that all foundations Deep, deep down reside in me. Earth is calling, Earth is calling, Come back home and live in me. Come back home and live in me.
- 3. You who travel Earth as pilgrims, Dreaming where you'd rather be; God's own glory fills my body, I am God's own sanctuary. Earth is calling, Earth is calling, Come back home to God in me. Come back home to God in me
- 4. You who hope for joys in heaven, Do you know the joys of Earth? Ancient forests filled with singing, Seas that shout when whales give birth? Earth is calling, Earth is calling, Come back home and sing with me. Come back home and sing with me.
- 5. You who long for bread like manna Falling from the hand of God? Know that Earth provides your water, Precious breath and daily food. Earth is calling, Earth is calling, Come back home and dine with me. Come back home and dine with me.

Dismissal

ALL Thanks be to God. Alleluia!

Postlude

Please remain seated during Postlude to allow for altar clean-up & coffee set-up. 10
