Communicating Welcome Series Part 2: The Church of YES and NO

It was truly delightful to receive your feedback on my last week's musing on Welcome, which is something so central to the Gospel of Christ and the understanding of our local mission. I plan to share some common themes of your feedback at the very end of this series.

What do I mean the Church of YES and NO?

Drawing from the conversations I have had with people coming in and going out through our church doors in the last 9 years, many of you have told me, in one way or another, that this church celebrates God's YES for you and for others: YES that we have a place at the table, and YES that we are worthy to belong. St. Hilda's takes our welcome seriously in printed and spoken words. Most people receive a warm welcome when they walk through our doors regardless of who they are and who they may have been. Imagine a church bearing an outdoor neon sign saying "YES."

Like every community, there were times when our neon sign malfunctioned: when new friends exploring a deeper connection met up with the NOs — NO, we don't do that here; NO, you have to do it this way; NO, we have always done it like this; NO that isn't the Anglican way; etc. Often, parishioners did not set out to be mean-spirited. Nonetheless, the damage was done and people were left with feelings of being belittled and their own experience discounted. How could we better orientate seekers and visitors to parish life? If our parish honours doing everything "properly," how could we bring an attitude of curiosity and openness towards what new people are able to bring? Often, all it takes is for us to pause and put ourselves into people's shoes before we speak.

Some describe the Anglican Church as a Big Tent while I prefer the image of a Wide River with lots of room for us to swim our different styles and strokes. Let us be conscious of making our church roomy for all to rest in the love of God and to explore the depth of that love.

Affirmation of Faith

We believe that when we live in love,
we live in God and God lives in us.

We believe that the mystery we call God
is visible in human form in each of us,
and among all creatures through creation.

We believe that the life and teaching of Christ Jesus set us free from all fears, even the fear of God.

We believe the Spirit of Christ is made known to us in the breaking of bread,
in our wrestling with Holy Scriptures,
and in being vulnerable to each other in community.

We believe that the Church exists to affirm God's loving presence with us and to challenge us to give witness to this presence in our love for one another.

We believe that we may respond to the love of God through serving and respecting the dignity of all God's creation.

The Prayers of the People

Please stand, sit or kneel according to your praying custom. Names upheld in the prayers can be found on the Parish List on the back page. You are also welcome to name your loved one(s) aloud or silently in your heart.

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant In humility,
as children of God and sisters and brothers in Christ,
we receive God's mercy and respond to God's call
to make new all relationships.

Silence is kept

Merciful Lord, your Spirit hovered over the waters
where diversity sprouted and flourished.

ALL We confess our difficulty to live with legitimate differences.
Forgive us those attitudes of mind, words and actions
that do violence to unity in diversity.

Celebrant Merciful Christ,
grace and joy of the multitude, listener and teacher,
you give birth to new visions of hope
and heal the wounds of mind and body.

ALL We confess that we have failed
to listen to voices different from our own,
failed to say words that bring healing and hope,
and we have perpetuated exclusive attitudes
to those who cry out for solidarity and fellowship.

Celebrant Merciful Lord, you are the source of all creation,
the Eternal and life-giving Word.

ALL We confess that we do not listen to your creation that groans and cries out for liberation and renewal.
Help us to walk together and to hear your voice
in all living things that suffer and yearn for healing and care.

Celebrant May God, fountain of mercy and grace,
pour over you pardon and peace.
May love transform you into a source of living waters
to restore your strength.

ALL Amen.

The Peace Please rise as able as we share the peace of the Lord.

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be with you all.

PEOPLE And also with you.

The Invitation

Receiving Communion

If you know the brokenness of life, its fractures within and its division without, then you have participated in the broken body of Christ and you are invited to share in the breaking of bread. If you desire to know the love of God that overcomes indifference and despair, if you desire the reconciliation that overcomes estrangement and alienation, then you are invited to share the cup of the new covenant.

The bread is received in the open palm. It is usual Anglican practice to drink the wine from the common cup. Both wine and unfermented grape juice are served. If you prefer to receive a gluten-free wafer or grape juice, please inform the person administering the bread or wine when they approach you. If you prefer to receive a blessing instead of Communion, you are welcome to come forward and place your hands across your chest.

 82 Communion Hymn .....Hallelujah! We Sing Your Praises
