Announcements

Please Welcome The Rev Nicholas Parker to St. Hilda's:

Nick will be leading Sunday services for the month of July. He has a weekly blog that you can read at www.njparker.com.

Music Director on Holidays: Katherine is on holidays and will be back on July 21. Many thanks to Karen who will be the musician at the 10 am service and to Linda Kern who will be offering an organ postlude for those Sundays.

New Campaign total: $918,123.19

Church Name Tags: To help out our guest clergy and our new priest, we are asking members to wear their name tags. If you took yours home and now can't find it, please let the Office know and Karen will print you a new one. Otherwise, the name tags will be in the Narthex for you to use for the upcoming services.

Prayer for General Synod: General Synod, the national governing body of the Anglican Church of Canada finishes meeting July 16 in Vancouver. It will bring three important issues before the Church: The proposed revision of the marriage canon, a primate election, and indigenous self-determination, in addition to other areas of our common life together. The House of Bishops invites the Church to join in prayer for the work of General Synod that, "we may bear with one another in unity and love under the guidance of God the Holy Spirit."

Yard Clean-up: Sunday July 28 at 11:30 am. Please stay to help spruce up our gardens for the Writers' Festival. Since we are next door to Rockwood, many people wander through our garden area! Bring your gloves, hat, garden tools and helping hands!

Church Calendars: ACW is now taking orders for the 2020 Church Calendars. There is a sign-up sheet in the Narthex for the next couple of Sundays (price will be approx. $7)

Second Pie Sale next year: The ACW are considering another one for possibly Mothers' Day next year. This will mean freezing fruit this summer. We would very much appreciate it if anyone with extra apples, blueberries, strawberries, rhubarb, etc. would share them by putting them in the freezer marked "Pie Sale 2020" Pie makers could then help themselves.

We will still continue having our annual Thanksgiving Weekend Pie Sale.
